INDIVIDUAL FOCUS

Singing in a choir is incredibly rewarding, but there isn't always time to maintain and nurture the vocal quality of individual singers. Developed with Jeremy Jackman (of King's Singers fame), the Vocal MOT offers choristers individual vocal tuition whilst the choir prepares for the next performance.

LOGISTICS & COST

Part of a weekly rehearsal, workshops, courses or choir trips – all that's needed is a separate room with a piano. Book through your choir administrator, MD or individually. £20 per person – special group rates are available.

Singers came out from your session with a big smile on their face and so did I.

I would have no hesitation in recommending you to others and found your exercises and comments particularly helpful.

The weekend was fantastic and you were like the icing on the cake. My teacher told me I was much less tense afterwards.
